Attention: Mr. Norbert Pauli,

We write to acknowledge your interest to be part of the on-going tender of the New Partnership for Africa Development, which is an initiative of the African Union government, which tends to meet the needs of member states.

Having received your completed contract form, we thus avail you the chance of submitting bid for the supply surgical instrument as specified on the information provided to you by our inquiry agency. Again we want to remind you that this tender is for eligible suppliers who has a standing reputation, and who is prepared to approach this bid process as stipulated by international contractual laws.

To this note, we demand that you should submit the under listed documents to our office for scrutiny. They include:

1. A copy of your proforma invoice covering the total quantity of the products to be supplied
2. The certificate of incorporation or registration of your company.

TERMS OF CONTRACT:

PAYMENT METHOD: Bank to bank telegraphic transfer, if otherwise negotiable between your company and this institution.

PAYMENT TERMS: After completion of the tender bid process 70% up-front, and 30% to be confirmed by your bank prior to shipment.

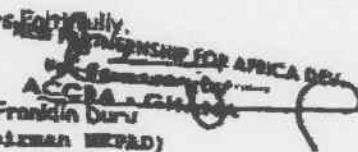

DELIVERY TIME: One hundred and eighty (180) days from the date of the receipt of payment.

SHIPPING DESTINATION: Every consignments shall be delivered at the dock of Tema harbor seaport, Accra Ghana, West Africa.

FEE: We do inform you that the tender application and processing fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) has been received by us, as payment was made by Mr. Peter Addo.

LEGALITY: You are mandated by law to appoint an attorney who has attended the position of Senior Advocate of Ghana (SAG), to stand as an arbitrator between your company and this honorable institution; subsequent to contract award. Once you provide us with an attorney, we shall commence award and payment procedure.

Thanks and it has been my pleasure at your service.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Franklin Duru
(Chairman NEPAD)

FRAUDULENT DOCUMENT

"... Working for Africa's Prosperity"

The NEPAD Planning and Coordinating Agency (NPCA), functioning as the Interim African Union (AU) Office in South Africa presents its compliments to all Diplomatic and Consular Missions accredited to the Republic of South Africa and has the honour to report cases of suspected fraud which have been brought to the attention of the NEPAD Agency by organizations targeted by the individuals behind these cases of suspected fraud.

The NEPAD Agency would like to inform all diplomatic missions that certain unscrupulous individuals allegedly based in Ghana, have been using the name of NEPAD Planning and Coordination Agency, to solicit for business from business organizations all over the world. Samples of the fraudulent documents are herewith attached for your attention.

The NEPAD Planning and Coordination Agency (NPCA), further requests the intervention of all diplomatic missions to communicate this incidence of fraud to their States for onward dissemination to the public and business organizations about the activities of these individuals. Additionally, the NPCA would appreciate the help of diplomatic missions in bringing this matter to the attention of law enforcement authorities in their respective capitals and missions at the African Union Headquarters in Addis Ababa.

The NEPAD Planning and Coordination Agency (NPCA), functioning as the Interim African Union (AU) Office in South Africa avails itself of this opportunity to renew to all Diplomatic and Consular Missions accredited to the Republic of South Africa, the assurances of its highest consideration.
